

Want to be a part of our smart, brave and passionate team?

POSITION: Management/ Governance / Legal Intern

WHERE: Reach for Change Stockholm, Sweden

COMMITMENT: Full time

DURATION: August/September 2019- January 2020

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: 1st of April
(applications will be reviewed continuously, please submit application as soon as possible)

Who we are

Reach for Change is a quickly growing global non-profit organization founded by the Kinnevik Group and Sara Damber to improve lives for children. We find and help passionate social entrepreneurs develop innovative solutions that make the world better for children. We launched in Sweden in 2010 and are supporting more than 190 social entrepreneurs across 18 countries.

Who You Are

We believe you have a strong passion when it comes to improving the world for children and social entrepreneurship. As a person, you are thorough, have strong project management skills and are interested in communication and working with diverse cultures. Some of your key skills are the ability to think strategically, to work independently and to have research capabilities. You don't hesitate to take initiative, are proactive, as well as like having many different projects to juggle at the same time. You care about the quality of your work and you have an entrepreneurial problem solving go-getter mindset. Knowledge within/or interest in IT is preferable.

What we can offer

This is a varied and demanding role with a focus on HR work which includes tasks related to organizational and strategic development, team development and recognition, event coordination and office and procurement. You will be working directly with the HR & Legal Director and from time to time for the CEO and Deputy CEO. You will also get to participate in the in-person meetings of the global leadership team. We highly value our interns here at Reach for Change for their skills and the energy they bring to our team. For the right person, we can offer a great opportunity to develop your workplace skills and be part of a highly talented global team of smart, brave and passionate change makers.

We hope you...

- Are a student or graduate of psychology; business administration; entrepreneurship; political science; international relations; development studies; or similar. Either at Bachelor's or Master's level.
- Have great proficiency in English – the language we use for most of our communication.
- Are connected to a university where the internship is part of your education plan. This is an unpaid position, however it's very important to us that you are receiving funds from a third party (CSN or other source of income).

How you should apply

If you are who we're looking for, send an email with your CV, cover letters and details of your external financial support (e.g. University funding) in English as PDFs to apply@reachforchange.org. Mark the heading with the position you are applying for. The selection process will include an interview and a case during week 15-16. We look forward to hearing from you!
